If you still have these bills please bring them so we can verify you used the proper address.

CREDIT REPORTS

- We obtain your credit report for you once you have paid us in full to file your case.

CREDIT COUNSELING INFORMATION

Participating in one credit counseling session (about one hour) is required to file bankruptcy. You are not required to participate in a repayment program, you are just required to complete the session and obtain a certificate for each person who is filing the bankruptcy. There are several providers that are approved by the U.S. Trustee to provide counseling. We currently recommend Allen Credit & Debt Counseling Agency 1-888-415-8173. They are internet based and their web site is www.acdcas.com. (The cost is currently $20 for couples or individuals, $25 if done by phone). Go online and take the course. At the conclusion of the course there is a short chat that must be completed to receive your certificate. This process must be complete in order to file your case. Please provide them with the Attorney Code 1a964. They will email your certificate to us once the course is complete. If it is not complete the day you meet with us, we will prepare your case for filing and wait for the course to be completed. Make sure you complete the creditor worksheets and budget in our packet before contacting them as you will need to provide them this identical information.

Don't hesitate to set your filing appointment with us prior to completing the credit counseling. Once you have met with our office, paid your fees and we have received your credit counseling certificate, we will be ready to file your case.

CREDITOR INFORMATION

Bankruptcy law requires that all creditors must be listed. If any creditor is not listed, they may not be discharged and your case may be dismissed. Each creditor listed must include the correspondence address (not the address where you send the payment) including the zip code, the amount owed, the date incurred and the account number. Some creditors, particularly medical, have many account numbers for the same person DO NOT LIST EACH ACCOUNT SEPARATELY. List the creditor once, but write down all of the account numbers in the space provided for the creditor. If you don't have addresses for the creditors, they can often be found on the internet or on your credit report. The cost to add creditors to your case after filing is $75.00 before the hearing and $100.00 after the hearing. (This is the cost each time creditors are added, not the per-creditor cost.)

Below is a list of creditors often overlooked. Refer to it as an aid to help you list all of your debts.

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs.

Questions 1-18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19-25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None", mark the box labeled "None". If additional space is needed for that answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name and the number of the questions.
